RIVER, BOMBAS AND WATER.—The river is falling here yesterday, leaving 5 feet on the canal at dusk, and 7 feet on the falls. Business is rather dead, owing to the "strike" of the draft men. What they "stuck" for we couldn't learn.

DRIED PEACHES—50 bushels, unpeeled, at 15c.
 FLOUR—50 hbls superfine at $7 15. Extra Family a the ship No. 1, came off last night in the early morning. The ship was in the water and the crew was in the water. The ship was in the water and the crew was in the water. The ship was in the water and the crew was in the water.

STRUCK—The drydock took the "well heeled" ship by the bow. The ship was in the water and the crew was in the water. The ship was in the water and the crew was in the water. The ship was in the water and the crew was in the water.

SINKING OF THE DAREDEVIL—The Memphis Cincinnati packet Darling struck a snag in the river and sank. No lives were lost. There is a story that the ship was in the water and the crew was in the water. The ship was in the water and the crew was in the water. The ship was in the water and the crew was in the water.

UNDERVALUED—No doubt the cargo, as she was loaded with flour, was worth more than the value of the ship. The ship was in the water and the crew was in the water. The ship was in the water and the crew was in the water. The ship was in the water and the crew was in the water.

PROGRESS SINK—The steamer Progress, from Cincinnati to Fort Smith, sank at 20 miles from the mouth of the river. The ship was in the water and the crew was in the water. The ship was in the water and the crew was in the water. The ship was in the water and the crew was in the water.

THE LAURA FENIX, Captain Whitlow, with Green, Clerk, is at Portland, loading for the steamer Progress. The ship was in the water and the crew was in the water. The ship was in the water and the crew was in the water. The ship was in the water and the crew was in the water.

THE PERSONS will undoubtedly leave for Cincinnati tomorrow evening. The ship was in the water and the crew was in the water. The ship was in the water and the crew was in the water. The ship was in the water and the crew was in the water.

THE STEAMER DE SOTO, hence for Paducah, will leave for Cincinnati tomorrow evening. The ship was in the water and the crew was in the water. The ship was in the water and the crew was in the water. The ship was in the water and the crew was in the water.

A NEW HARBOR has been "set up" for the ship No. 1, came off last night in the early morning. The ship was in the water and the crew was in the water. The ship was in the water and the crew was in the water. The ship was in the water and the crew was in the water.
